About the Manager

Main Management ETF Advisors (MMEA) is a value investor and seeks to own investments at attractive valuations. In order to avoid the classic “Value Trap”, MMEA seeks a catalyst that should lead to near-term price appreciation (mean reversion). The investment strategy is implemented with exchange traded funds (ETFs).

The Main Management International Investment Process

Investment Strategy

Main Management seeks to achieve long term capital appreciation by investing in non U.S. country and sector indexes. The portfolio utilizes a dynamic asset allocation approach which combines the benefits of both strategic and tactical allocation strategies. The strategy employs a top down assessment to identify undervalued economic regions, countries and sectors. Rigorous fundamental analysis and a proprietary weighing methodology are key components of a disciplined allocation process. Concurrently, tactical allocations will be used to anticipate and respond to opportunistic shifts in the market. The portfolio is implemented using Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs)

Start: Fundamentals

The first step of the investment process is to identify countries, economic regions, and international sector ETFs that appear undervalued relative to history and the rest of the market based on valuation and growth metrics.

Next: Catalysts

The second step is to identify an appropriate catalyst or macroeconomic trend that may help close that valuation discount and lead to price appreciation.
